From: David Muscat, CEO, National Literacy Agency

Subject: 'Nirreċtaw Hrejifna'- Drama and Storytelling Club

The National Literacy Agency is organizing a drama and storytelling club, 'Nirreċtaw Hrejifna', for children in Year 4 to Year 6 who wish to strengthen their drama and communication skills. The aim of the club is to encourage children to develop their drama and language skills and learn to express their thoughts and emotions through multisensory activities based on fairy tales. Sessions will be held in Maltese, although the Agency will be offering this club in English in due course.

An exhibition and closure celebration will be organized at the end of the club. A certificate of participation will be given to those participants who attend regularly (80%) and complete the club successfully.
