Ref: DDLTS 15/2024
From: Directorate for Digital Literacy and Transversal Skills (DDLTS)
To: All Heads of Schools (State and Non-State)
Subject: Child-friendly version of the Digital Education Strategy
Date: 27th May 2024

The Directorate for Digital Literacy and Transversal Skills has published the Digital Education Strategy public consultation document.

To ensure the success of this strategy, as key stakeholders, children are encouraged to provide their feedback. The Directorate is committed to facilitating the process to ensure that the perspectives of children is given due importance and that they form an integral part of policies and initiatives that will shape their future. In collaboration with the Ministry for Social Policy and Children's Rights', the Directorate also provided the child-friendly version of this consultation document which is accessible online at <https://empoweringchildren.gov.mt/digital-education-strategy/>.

Head of schools are thus requested to raise awareness of the child-friendly version of the strategy by disseminating the link with students and their guardians.

The Digital Education strategy consultation document is available on the Maltese Booklet: <https://digitalliteracy.skola.edu.mt/wp-content/uploads/2024/04/Maltese-Book-FOR-WEB.pdf>
